

COME JOIN US IN FRANCE

AGROECOLOGY INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

June 13 - July 17, 2019 in Lyon, FRANCE

Academic Program (in English)

Sustainable Agriculture & Food Systems

Coursework consists of lectures, case studies, field work, excursions (fish pond landscape, mixed crop livestock systems in mountains areas and conservation biological control in vegetal production), use of geographical information system, economics, agronomy and ecology, traditional food systems, local food supply chains, personal research study and oral presentations.

Linguistic & Cultural Program

French language & culture

Visits and events:

- Lyon, UNESCO World Heritage site
- Vallée du Rhône Vineyards
- Cheese makers in the Alps
- Regional companies & industries
- Chocolate factory
- Tasting & cooking of traditional French foods
- Dinner in a lyonnaise family
- 2 days in Paris

CONTACT: Sigolène Verneret
sverneret@isara.fr

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April, 15, 2019

Cost: 3 950 €

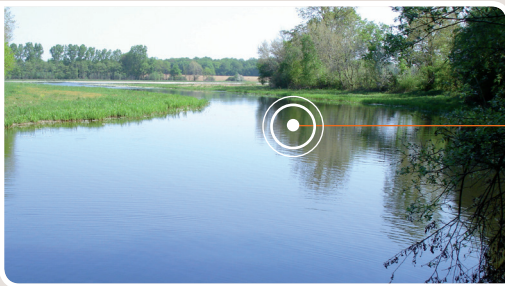

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE & FOOD SYSTEMS

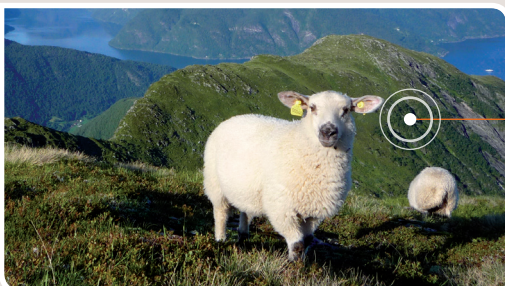

Applying agroecological practices

Organic farming in mountainous regions

Managing biodiversity

Fish pond systems in agricultural landscapes
(Dombes)

Diversifying food systems

Economy of sustainable food systems
(Alps)

VISIT:

www.isara.fr/en
www.iplsummerschool.com

WHO IS ELIGIBLE ?

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS
WITH A MAJOR IN SCIENCE OR HUMANITIES

Credits:

9 European Credits (ECTS)

Upon completion of the program